

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—President Cleveland sent to the Senate the following nominations:

SECRETARY OF STATE, THOMAS F. BAYARD of Delaware.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, DANIEL MANNING of New York.

SECRETARY OF WAR, WM. C. ENDICOTT, of Massachusetts.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, WM. C. WHITTIER, of New York.

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR, L. Q. C. LAMAR of Mississippi.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL, WM. F. VILAS, of Wisconsin.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL, A. H. GARLAND of Arkansas.

When the Cabinet nominations were taken up in the executive session, Riddleberger objected to the immediate consideration of the nomination of Bayard, stating briefly that he did so because of Bayard's attitude upon the Irish question. Riddleberger thought him more English than American. Bayard's name being first on the list, the consideration of it went over, under the rule of the Senate, for a day.

Mr. Bayard was born in New Brunswick, Del., October 29, 1829. He was chiefly educated at Flushing School, and his early training was for a mercantile life. After having had some experience in business in New York he returned to Delaware and settled in New Castle, where he was engaged in mercantile pursuits until 1851, when he was elected to Congress. He was then in the Senate. He was admitted to the Bar in 1851, and in 1853 he was appointed United States District Attorney for Delaware, but resigned in 1855, when he returned to New Castle, where he remained till 1858, when he returned to Wilmington, where he remained through the civil war, practicing his profession. In the winter of 1868-9 he was elected to the Senate to succeed his father, and was re-elected in 1871 and 1873. He was a member of the Electoral Commission. Mr. Bayard is the fourth of his family who have served in the Senate. His grandfather, James Ashton Bayard, was elected to the Senate in 1792. His father, Thomas Bayard, was elected in 1869. His uncle, Richard H. Bayard, was elected to the Senate from Delaware in 1851. His brother, Thomas Bayard, also served in the Senate from 1851 to 1859.

DANIEL MANNING.
Mr. Manning was born in Albany, N. Y., August 16, 1831. His parentage was of Irish, English and Dutch extraction. He was a poor boy, and his early opportunities for schooling were very limited. At 11 years of age he went to work as an office boy at the establishment of the Albany Atlas, which was afterwards merged into the Albany Argus, with

"Well, just leave it 'orelse, and put an interpretation point after it. If I am not going to be taken in by a cheap lawyer, I cannot be a lawyer. It looks queer. It looks very queer."

The State has paid $151,000 more than anybody could have anticipated, has it not?"

"Yes; it certainly has."

"Is it queer for brokers to take advantage of innocent and stupid people and of their customers in this fashion?"

"No, it is not. It is the duty of a broker to buy for his principal as cheaply as possible."

"Then, Koln, Popper & Co. are similar."

"None, but they are very much the same thing. I understand that Koln, Popper & Co. were the brokers for BREXIDEN, THE PRINCIPAL. So were they for the State. They were the same kind of a cheap bagmen, and they bought
